

How to Get Paid / Claiming Commissions

IMPORTANT NOTES

- Please ensure the name on your ID matches the name on your LifeWave Account
- Ensuring you submit the correct information will decrease the amount of time you are waiting for your first commissions to be paid out.

Once you earn your first commission with LifeWave, please submit a clear copy of your Driver License or passport to commissions@lifewave.com. Upon receiving an acceptable form of identification, we will set up your LifeWave Pay Portal account.

Note: An email can only be registered once with PayPortal, so please ensure you sign up with a unique email address.

Please note that the name on your ID must match the name listed on your LifeWave Business Center profile. After submitting your ID, please allow seven business days for your LifeWave Pay Portal account to be created.

Once your LifeWave Pay Portal account has been created, you'll receive an activation email from notifications@lifewavecashcard.com. This email notification provides instructions on activating your account. If you don't receive the notification email or need to request a new one, visit www.lifewavecashcard.com, click the 'Resend Activation Email' button, and enter your email address. A new activation email will be sent to you.

Once logged into your Pay Portal account, you can request a LifeWave Visa card. This card can take up to 6 weeks to arrive once it has been requested.

USA ONLY

In addition to above, USA members also have an extra step, you must complete a W9 form and send along with your ID to commissions@lifewave.com. This form can be obtained from www.irs.gov/forms-pubs/about-form-w-9.

To help you complete the W9 form (for personal /business use), we have created two examples below that will help guide you through the process.

For more on the LifeWave Pay Portal, visit the 'Resources' section of your Back Office and click Commission Pay Card.

TIMING: Please allow seven working days for your PayPortal account to be created - This is based on a member providing correct details upon submission. First commissions can take up with three weeks to be transferred.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)
Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.
